File No. 130-06

Subject.

Conduct of certain services in the Sri Vydeswara Swami temple at Talkad in the T Narasipur Taluk

From

The Deputy Commissioner, Mysore Dist.

Letter No. 154 Dated 25th September 1907.

One Chikkanna of Talkad petitioned this office praying, stating that he intended purchasing wet land for Rs 1500/- for certain services during Karthikamasa in the Sri Vydeswara Swami temple at Talkad and solicited sanction therefor.

The Deputy Comr who was requested to report on the above petition, states that the Amildar reports that the petitioner seems to have sent up the petition for the sake of competition against Sira Basava Devaru who

Sir

In reply to your docket No: 2530 dated 12-11-06 forwarding for report petition (therewith re-transmitted) from Chikkanna offering a Pudurvat amount of Rs 1500/- for 'Deekshadhane' in Sri Vydeswara Swami temple at Talkad, in the T Narsipur Taluk
I have the honor to state that although the petitioner has deposed to conduct the Devartha, yet he failed to tender the amount when called upon.

2. The amildar after personal enquiry reports that the petitioner seems to have sent up the petition for the sake of competition against Shiva Basava Devaru who was for a time reluctant to continue the worship; that subsequent to the petition Shiva Basava Devaru undertook the business himself and that the petitioner was consequently disappointed disappointed.

3 He further reports that he had a talk with the petitioner and the result was discouraging and that therefore nothing more is necessary in this case.

4 The Sub Division officer's vide rr no. 38/165 dated 30.8.07 bearing on 12.9.07 the subject is herewith submitted for reference.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
